Terrible Result of a Fire at Rochester, N. Y.

FOUR LIVES SACRIFICED.

A Mother and Three of Her Children Burned Beyond Recognition—An Old Lady Burned to Death in Philadelphia. Lives Lost in Other Fires.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Dec. 27.—In a fire on Orchard street early yesterday morning Mrs. John Diedrich and her three children were burned to death. The origin of the fire is a mystery. Mrs. Diedrich had arisen at 4 o'clock to start a fire in the kitchen stove and awakened her husband soon after with an alarm of fire. She rushed in to save her three little children and perished in the flames. Her husband and one son escaped.

The family retired about 10 o'clock Thursday night. The mother and three children went to sleep in a small bedroom in the rear part of the house and the father and a son 15 years of age, slept together in the sitting room. Yesterday morning at 4 o'clock the mother awoke and started a fire in the kitchen stove and then returned to bed. In less than an hour the mother awakened by smoke in her bedroom and rose to find the kitchen in flames. Her screams awoke the father and son, and the boy started out of the house in his night clothes to awake the neighbors. He ran to the house next door and arousing Mr. Mattern asked him to send in alarms of fire. Mr. Mattern ran to the corner of Orchard and Orange streets and gave the alarm.

It was but a little over five minutes before the firemen reached the spot, but before that time Mrs. Diedrich and the three children sleeping with her had perished in the flames. After arousing her husband the mother returned to the bedroom to save her children, but perished with them. Until the fire was extinguished it was supposed that Mrs. Diedrich and the children had escaped to some of the neighbors', but after the water had subdued the flames and the firemen had entered the apartment where she had slept the remains of the mother and three children were found on the bed burned beyond recognition.

Aged Lady Burned to Death.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 27.—A fire Thursday evening in the residence of Edward Penrose, 2105 Gratz avenue, resulted in the death of his aged mother-in-law, Mrs. Fitzsimmons, of Brooklyn, who was spending the holidays with her daughter, and the almost total destruction of the house.

The old lady had retired and the rest of the family were admiring a Christmas tree, when the tapers on the tree became ignited, setting the entire room on fire almost instantly. During the excitement that followed the old lady was forgotten, and was suffocated by the smoke before the fire was extinguished. The dead woman was the widow of a prominent Brooklyn merchant who left a moderate fortune. She is also an aunt of Edward H. Flood, the contractor and builder.

Dead Body Found in the Ruins.

BOSTON, Dec. 27.—The body of Frank McGovern was found yesterday in the ruins of the Bristol block which was burned on Wednesday night. McGovern had been employed at odd jobs, about the building and had probably gone to sleep in the cellar and was smothered before he awoke.

Burned in Her Residence.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Dec. 27.—Mrs. Ellen Gibbons, aged 80 years, was burned to death at her house on Ash street early yesterday morning. It is not known whether her death was accidental or self murder.

A BURNING MINE.

MOUNT PLEASANT, Pa., Dec. 27.—Early yesterday morning a miner's lamp exploded in the underground stables at the United coke works, of H. C. Frick & Company, near Mount Pleasant. The explosion set fire to the hay and feed. The flames spread to all parts of the mine, which is now burning with frightful fury. The tippie houses and several other buildings at the top of the shaft were also destroyed.

Nearly all of the company's property above and below the shaft was burned. Sixteen mules also perished. The fire was caused by Stablenman John Skrogs lamp setting fire to a barrel of oil which exploded. The burning oil scattered all about the stable. Skrogs battled with the flames but without effect and barely gained the top of the shaft when the flames followed him, setting fire to everything of an inflammable nature.

There were 120 men at work in the burning mine. At the first alarm the entire population of the village rushed to the burning shaft and a babel of shrieking voices filled the air. Half an hour later a hopeful cheer came from the door of an air shaft a short distance away that changed the wailing of the almost frantic people into shouts of joy, as they saw their friends crawling out of the little hole in the ground to a place of safety. All of the miners were saved. Mine Master William West had discovered the flames, and given a timely warning to the workmen who were scattered over a radius nearly a mile in extent.

Mine Master West, assuring himself that all his men were safe, with a dozen followers re-entered the mine and erected a brattice, preventing the flames from spreading in the heading. Charles Bowder, the company's master mechanic, ventured beyond the fire limit and was overcome by the gas. West dashed through the flames, dragging Bowder back to a place of safety and resuscitated him. The company's loss will reach $75,000, and months will elapse before the works can be operated again.

FIRE LOSSES ELSEWHERE.

A Fine Depot Burned at Port Jervis, New York—Other Places Visited.

PORT JERVIS, N. Y., Dec. 27.—The Erie railroad depot, at this place, was totally destroyed by fire last night. It was one of the handsomest passenger depots on the line of the road, and had been built only about three years.

The fire is believed to have been caused by the crossing of electric light wires on the roof with those of the company connecting with the operating room, where the fire was discovered. Loss about $30,000.

Big Fire in San Augustine, Tex.

SAN AUGUSTINE, Tex., Dec. 27.—Fire Wednesday destroyed Collins' dry goods store, hotel, barroom and livery stable; Lynch's store; Wallace's hotel; Sharp & Sosman's saloon; J. R. WASHINGTON, Ind., Dec. 27.—Fire at Plainville yesterday destroyed Jenkins' hotel, Little's store and other buildings. Loss, $12,000; insurance, $8,000. James McBride, a prominent citizen of the town, is under arrest charged with firing the block.

COUNTERFEITERS CAPTURED.

A Number of Arrests Made and Money Captured in Pittsburgh.

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 27.—Seventeen men and two women were arrested Thursday night and locked up under the charge of passing counterfeit money. Eleven hundred silver dollars, perfect in every detail, the only fault being light weight, were also captured by the officers who made the raid at No. 523 Lincoln avenue, East End. In this building the entire party has been living since its arrival in the city last week. Yesterday five other men were arrested on suspicion, and $60 additional bogus silver dollars captured. The United States officials say that the money was not made in Pittsburgh, but the gang, all of whom so far captured, are Italians, has its headquarters elsewhere.

From one of the prisoners the detectives ascertained that the money was made in New York, and that similar gangs were sent to other cities to distribute the money. The prisoner could not tell what cities were being operated. The crew that led to the discovery of the gang was picked up in a restaurant in Market alley Thursday evening, where two Italians, accompanied by women, said to be their wives, tendered a light-weight dollar in payment for refreshments.

These two men, Mazzo Mazzalting and Alia Rotisca, were given a hearing before United States Commissioner McCandless yesterday afternoon. Nothing of importance was developed at the hearing, and they were committed to jail in default of $1,000 each.

Two informations were made before Commissioner McCandless yesterday against Leonard Matenc and Michael Demarino, charging them with having in their possession counterfeit money. They are the men, it is alleged who brought the satchel, containing $1,100 in counterfeit money to the boarding house in East Liberty. These men will have a hearing next.

The weather.

Snow, westerly winds, followed by warmer weather. The storm on the Atlantic coast is central between New York city and Philadelphia. Heavy snows have occurred in New England and the Middle Atlantic states. Snowfalls of eight inches are reported from Boston and New York, with wind's velocity of thirty-two to forty-two miles an hour. The highest velocity attained was sixty-eight miles at Block Island. The snow will continue in the lake regions, New York and New England to-morrow. South of Philadelphia the weather will probably clear with no marked changes in temperature.

Near Erie Collision.

ST. THOMAS, Ont., Dec. 27.—A rear end collision occurred about 10 o'clock last night between two freight trains on the Michigan Central, near Iona, resulting in the death of brakeman Hector Grant, of this city, and the serious injury of three other trainmen. It is not yet known who was responsible for the accident.

Onto Christian Alliance.

FINDLAY, O., Dec. 27.—The third mid-winter convention of the Ohio Christian Alliance, which is composed of Faith Cure believers, Second Adventists, Sanctificationists and Christian Scientists, began in the town hall at Bluffton village, sixteen miles west of this city, at 7 o'clock last night. The convention will last five days, and is attended by believers in these doctrines from all over the country.

AN ORDERLY STRIKE.

Such is the One Now on in Scotland.

TEN THOUSAND MEN ARE OUT.

The State of Affairs Growing More Serious While Both Sides Seem to Be as Determined as Ever Not to Make Any Concessions—Other Foreign News.

GLASGOW, Dec. 27.—The strike situation, in so far as the North British railway is involved, is very slightly changed. The officials of that company have succeeded in engaging the services of a number of new hands, and in effecting a slight improvement in the passenger traffic on the road. As yet the movement of the badly delayed and constantly accumulating mass of freight piled up on the side track has not been materially advanced.

The men have agreed to confer with the directors of the company, provided the secretary of their union is permitted to be present and give his counsel during the deliberations of the meeting. Inasmuch as the directors have been very positive in their assertions that they would close the road rather than permit any interference with its management by the employees or their representatives, it is doubtful whether they will consent to recognize the secretary of the union. Should they do so, the public as well as the strikers will consider the company's position as having very significantly weakened within the past twelve hours.

At Aberdeen, however, the battle seems to go badly against the strikers, almost every man having resumed work. At all the great centers of the strike, the employers express confidence that before long the necessities of their families will compel the men to come to terms and resume work. On the other hand, the strikers assert that they are in a condition to continue the struggle for six weeks without causing distress to themselves or their families. They claim to have prudently prepared for the contingency now upon them, and the treasuries of the unions are believed to be amply able to promptly relieve anything like suffering, or even scarcity of necessities.

Considering that about 10,000 men are out along the line of railway system of Scotland, the strike is a phenomenally orderly one.

At the headquarters of the striking railroad employees, great satisfaction is expressed at the prompt and energetic action of the English and Irish unions in warning their men to refrain from accepting employment on Scotch roads pending settlement of the existing difficulties. The announcement made by speakers at the various meetings which were held on reception of the news, that any attempt of English or Irish railway managers to coerce men into assisting the Scotch railway officials would be the signal for a strike on the roads controlled by such managers, was received with extraordinary enthusiasm.

Sullivan's Sentiments.

CORK, Dec. 27.—Mr. T. D. Sullivan arrived from America yesterday. He was presented with an address by a committee of McCarthyites, and in his reply said that when he left Ireland the party had a leader noted for his sagacity, reticence and statesmanlike qualities. He did not recognize those qualities in the Parnell of to-day. The majority of intelligent Americans were opposed to Parnell's continuance in the leadership. He hoped that O'Brien would succeed in bringing about an agreement, but he firmly believed that the action taken against Mr. Parnell was the proper course to pursue, and that it should not be reversed.

A Startling Statement.

VIENNA, Dec. 27.—The Count Franz Von Sykking, of Vienna, who was recently arrested on a charge of defrauding a widow out of 18,000 florins, all she had, on the pretext that he was Russia's candidate for the Bulgarian throne, and would make her daughter a princess, has presented the extraordinary defense that he was actually approached by high Russian authority with the proposal to become prince of Bulgaria, provided the Austrian court would consent to the removal of Prince Ferdinand. The count is of distinguished ancestry and his case arouses much attention.

The Czarewitch Arrives at Bombay.

LONDON, Dec. 27.—Bombay advices describe the arrival of the czarewitch in that city. He was received with the honors due to his position. Col. Gerard, of the vice regal court, and Capt. Grover and Lieut. Newnham being added to the prince's staff to accompany him throughout his journey in India. A grand welcome is in preparation for the czarewitch at Hydersbad. He will also be received at Calcutta, and after visiting Madras and other places, will embark on the Russian flag ship at Mysore, for Ceylon en route to China.

Parnell Weakening.

PARIS, Dec. 27.—The Temps says that after the meeting of Mr. Parnell and Mr. O'Brien, a formal conference will be held between Messrs. McCarthy, Power, Redmond, O'Kelly, Sexton, Kenny and Arthur O'Connor, the aim being a reunion on the basis of the temporary retirement of Mr. Parnell.

Round House Roof Falls In.

ALBANY, N. Y., Dec. 27.—The roof of the Central house, round house, at West Albany, yesterday afternoon fell from the weight of snow. There were eight men buried beneath the timbers and snow. Of these only two were very much injured. Engineer John Reeder had his right arm broken and otherwise injured. George Petrie sustained injuries about the body and legs. The others escaped with slight bruises. There were thirteen engines in the house at the time.

A DEAD HIGHWAYMAN.

He Attempted to Rob an Indianapolis Street Car Driver and is Shot Dead.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 27.—About 9:30 o'clock last night T. A. Seeley, driver of an English avenue car, shot through the head a man who attempted to board the front end of the car to rob him of his cash box.

Seeley had been warned by a boy living in West Indianapolis that an attempt would be made to rob him, and when he saw two men of suspicious character standing near the corner of Spruce street and English avenue in the extreme southwest part of the city, he became very cautious. One of the men hailed the car, but the driver, paying no attention to the call, drove on.

The two men then ran after the car, and the driver, looking back, saw that both were mas s. One of them ran to the front of the car, and jumping on the driver's platform, placed a revolver at his head. The driver though hardly anticipating such a movement, quickly had his own revolver at the robbers' head. He fired, and the robber fell over the dashboard dead, with a bullet hole through his skull.

The second highwayman took to his heels, but the driver, jumping from the car, fired three shots at him, none of which took effect. The dead man was tall, about 28 years of age, and well dressed. There was nothing on his person to identify him.

ARKANSAS BOILER EXPLOSION.

A Section Goes Through a Steamboat in Its Flight.

NEWPORT, Ark., Dec. 27.—By the explosion of a boiler in Kelly & Wells' lumber mills, on Black river, forty miles from here, two persons were killed and a number wounded. Engineer Wiley Sloan and John Angus, the superintendent, were standing in front of the boiler when the explosion occurred. Angus was blown against a lumber heap breaking his limbs and tearing away a portion of his skull.

No traces of the body of Sloan, the engineer, can be found. A large section of the boiler was shot through the iron roof, then through the Texas deck of the steamer Golden Gate, anchored nearby, and then across the river one hundred yards wide. Maud West was frightfully scalded and William Durgens had both legs broken in several places and was badly scalded. Four others were injured, but not dangerously.

ARGENTINE REPUBLIC.

A Brief Summary of the Commerce of That Country.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—The bureau of the American republics has received a dispatch from the Argentine Republic giving a brief summary of the commerce of that country for the year ending June 30 last. It appears that notwithstanding the revolution the imports for the year amounted to $175,955,187, and the exports $139,627,814.

The wheat crop for the year has been enormous and will probably be the largest ever grown in the country. During the year 289,014 immigrants landed at Buenos Ayres, of which number 109,343 had their passage paid by the government. The population in Buenos Ayres is reported to have increased between 30,000 and 40,000 during the year; 126 new streets being laid out, and between 8,000 and 9,000 new buildings erected.

Lymph Patients Improving.

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—The one hundred and odd lymph-inoculated patients at the various hospitals are all doing well, and are showing in a more or less degree the expected reactionary symptoms. There are seventeen lymph cases in Bellevue hospital, of whom several will be re-inoculated. They will also be weighed. Should their weight show an increase, Dr. Loomis will regard the lymph injections as having been productive of good results. Dr. Loomis would regard an increase in weight as the best premonition of the ultimate success of the experiment.

Buttler Confesses.

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—Charles Buttler, the divorce lawyer, who was arrested Thursday, has made a partial confession to the police, and acknowledges the committing of the crimes of forgery and larceny in connection with the bogus divorce mill of Hughes and Campbell, which was recently exposed by ex-Mayor Pendleton, of Fort Worth, Tex. Buttler says he is willing to pay the penalty for his crime.

JERSEY CITY, Dec. 27.—Maggie Murphy and Edward McDermott got into a row at a party given by a friend in Morgan street, and Miss Murphy, who is only 15 years old, hit McDermott on the head with an ax, crushing in his skull. The girl was arrested, and McDermott was sent to the city hospital.

Fell on His Feet.

ENGLISH, Ind., Dec. 27.—Elis Hughes, walking across the Blue river bridge Thursday night, fell seventy-five feet. He alighted on his feet. His companions hastened to him and found him sitting; they carried him home. Yesterday morning he was apparently unhurt, but complaining of stiffness in his joints.

Tussel With Tongs.

LIMA, O., Dec. 27.—A party of drunken toughs boarded Conductor Sprow's train on the Lake Erie and Western road at this place, and attempted to kill the conductor. The train men came to his rescue and quelled the mob. The result is several broken noses, but no one dangerously hurt.

Christmas Festivities.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Dec. 27.—In a free fight in a saloon at Farmersburg, near here Thursday, "Bud" Moore was shot behind the ear, the bullet coming out of the top of the head. George Berlein was shot in the shoulder and two other men were badly wounded.

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.

ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 27, 1890

A QUARTER of a century after the last shot Ram figures up 392,809 invalid pensions. What an astonishing preservative a ball is, explains the New York World.

THE report of the Labor Commissioner of Maine shows that over 3,300 farms were abandoned in that State this year. Farming in Blaine's State doesn't seem to pay.

THE President has vetoed the bill appropriating $75,000 for a public building at Bar Harbor, Me., on the ground that the public needs at that place did not justify such an expenditure. Score one for Benny.

THE Western Tobacco Association, the name of the proposed combine of the Cincinnati and Louisville warehousemen, has been dissolved. It was nipped in the bud by the independent movement of the growers. Would that all trusts could be knocked out as quickly.

THE threshing machine manufacturers who have combined to rob the farmers had better keep their eyes open. The wheat growers have reached that point where they won't stand and deliver. The first thing you know, they will be making their own threshing machines.

THERE are twenty-three banks in Louisville, excluding the trust companies and private bankers, and the Courier-Journal is decidedly of the opinion that they are far too numerous for their own good and prosperity. What's the matter with Lexington with over a dozen? The truth of the matter is, there's hardly a city in the State of any importance that isn't overstocked with banks. If some of the capital in these institutions were invested in manufactories, the cities would derive more benefit from it.

IT'S no use for the Republicans to try to down the Democrats this year. The G. O. P. has got some of the hardest blows since Jan. 1st, 1890, it ever received. It has been a disastrous year for our friends, the enemy. They have met with defeat on most every hand. By judicial rulings announced this week, they get the worst of it in the contests in Connecticut and Michigan. These decisions will likely settle the contest over the Governorship in the former State and the Legislature in the latter.

County Court Doings.

Sarah E. Phillips qualified as guardian of Wm. G., Eddie C. and Paul D. Phillips, with George W. Davis surety. A report of the state of said children was then filed by the guardian.

George M. Diener was granted license to retail spirituous, vinous and malt liquors at his place of business on the east side of Market street.

Railroad News.

THE year 1890 seems to have been an unfortunate one for car works, six of them having passed into the hands of receivers since March 1.

A company was organized at Cynthiana this week to build a road from Georgetown to Maysville, by way of Cynthiana and Mt. Olivet. The Court of Claims of Harrison will be asked to submit a proposition to the voters of that county to take stock in the road.

Stock and Crops.

Green B. Morris' stable of racers won $87,565 the past season, Strathmeath being leader with $40,325.

The leaf tobacco sales at Louisville for the year 1890 amounted to 144,657 hogsheads, the largest on record for any market. The nearest approach to it was made by Louisville in 1887, when 135,101 hogsheads were sold. Last year the sales were 132,702 hogsheads.

W. H. Wilson, of Abdallah Park, Cynthiana, has sold to J. A. Revis and C. C. Bean, of New York, the famous exhibition mare, Lady de Jarnette, and twenty-one head of colts, fillies and geldings, all by her son, Jubilee de Jarnette. The purchasers have left the whole outfit in Kentucky under Mr. Wilson's management with a view to carrying out the original plans which were to produce a distinct breed of improved harness horses, with the famous mare as a foundation. The price paid for the lot was $10,000.

THE Kansas City Times says the "Fat Men's Club" is replete with musical specialties, dancing and other pleasing features." See it at the opera house next Monday night.

MR. C. L. SALLER was taken ill Wednesday evening at the home of his mother near Fern Leaf, and was very sick Christmas. He was better yesterday morning, and is improving.

THE Enquirer says Charlie Ryan, of the C. and O., got "A True History of Maysville, and Her Great Men" off the railroads' Christmas tree. Wonder who's the author.

THE McGibeny Family, the largest musical family in the world, will give two entertainments here on Jan. 1st. They delighted a large audience when they were at the opera house a year ago.

DAN HOOVER, of Eckmansville, a member of Company D, 24th Infantry, has had his pension increased from $24 to $72 per month. One of Mr. Hoover's peculiarities is that he never wore a sock in his life.—Georgetown (O.) News-Democrat.

ASHLAND has a provision in her charter which says that "any person injured in person, or property, or means of support, by any intoxicated person, shall have the right of action against the person who sold or gave the intoxicating liquors, and damage may be awarded."

JOHN CAMPBELL says he made the largest pair of shoes ever put on a last in Brown County. They were for a customer of John Kinkead, a colored man from Tuckahoe Ridge, Mason County, Ky., and the size was No. 14. This knocks Chicago in the cold.—Ripley Bee.

PORTSMOUTH and other Ohio river towns are considerably worked up lately over the discovery of the fact that the Ohio river belongs entirely to Kentucky. It is feared by the Ohio towns that Kentucky may some day get her back up and cut off their water supply, says the Waverly Watchman. Well, Cincinnati doesn't worry over it. They don't drink much water down there.

Suit for Accident Insurance. Mrs. Julia J. Reigart has filed suit in Mason Circuit Court against the American Accident Insurance Company of Louisville for $5,000. The plaintiff is the widow of T. J. Deceased carried an accident policy at the time and the company refuses to pay it.

Here and There.

Mr. James Wood has returned from a trip East.

"Made to Please Everybody."

Two large houses witnessed that king of laugh-makers, J. C. Stewart, in the very funny farce comedy, "The Fat Men's Club." Laughter reigned supreme; it is a performance that is made to please everybody, and fulfills its mission well. There is just enough plot to hold the interest of an audience and give breathing spells between laughs. It contains in its composition nothing sensational or emotional, but is the funniest of all funny plays.—Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette.

This play will be the attraction at the opera house next Monday night. Go and enjoy a hearty laugh.

ABERDEEN.

Miss May Waldron, who has been teaching at Muse's Mills, Ky., is at home pending vacation.

A. J. Cooper and Misses Mollie Cooper and Edna Martin, of Hiett, spent Christmas here with friends.

Misses Sallie and Lottie Midgall, accompanied by Misses Jennie Cooper and Louise Collins of Portsmouth, returned home Christmas Eve, after an absence of several months.

The cantata rendered Christmas night by the Sunday school was quite a success, but owing to the severe illness (?) of one of the characters—Mr. Hamilton—a few changes had to be made in the programme. By request the Sunday school repeated the entertainment last night.

A Noteworthy Exception.

From the Kimball (S. D.) Graphic: "While the columns of the Graphic are open to any and all unobjectionable advertisements, yet it is quite impossible for us to speak knowingly of the merits of various articles of merchandise advertised. Particularly is this true of patent medicines. But there are exceptions occasionally and a noteworthy exception is the celebrated Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This now universally known medicine has been advertised in the Graphic for four or five years but not until recently had we any personal knowledge of its wonderful efficacy which has come about through the prevailing influenza and the stubborn cough that has so often attended it. In the writer's family this medicine has on several occasions this winter cured a cough that baffled any and all other medicines; and the number of families in Kimball and vicinity, in which this remedy has been used with like effects, attests to its value as a specific for coughs and colds of every nature." EXTRA inducements in prices are offered by the Frank Owens Hardware Company on their large stock of coal vases and fire sets, and pearl and ivory-handle knives and forks and plated spoons to close out the goods by Jan. 1st. tf

THE market at Covington Wednesday was overstocked with Christmas turkeys. It is said 5,000 were in the hands of the dealers and 2,000 were not sold. Are there only 3,000 families in Covington that can afford Christmas turkey?

THE heavy snow and sleet Christmas made a pretty bad wreck of the Kentucky Central telegraph line. The crew of the southbound train yesterday morning had to remove about two hundred poles between this city and Paris.

THE Frank Owens Hardware Company state that in order to close out as many goods as possible by January 1st they have reduced the price in all their fine stock of goods, such as brass fire sets, coal vases, fine carvers and forks, child's knives, forks and spoons, fine table cutlery, &c., &c.

AN "Uncle Tom's Cabin" party was billed to play at Paris one night this week. There was no performance. Fifteen complimentary tickets and 25 cents in cash were taken in. The drum major of the company was so disheartened that he sold his baton to a colored boy for $2.50 and then got drunk.

SERGEANT H. M. OWENS writing from Fort Niobrara, Neb., on the 23rd, says everything was quiet there, with but little talk about the Indians, but he adds that the First Infantry were "taking an active part in driving wood chucks off of the Reservation, while the wind was blowing sand at the rate of forty miles an hour."

A FINE setter bitch belonging to Mr. G. W. Geisel was shot and killed Wednesday. The animal had been acting strangely several days, and many believed she was suffering from hydrophobia. She bit a large number of other dogs, and also bit Jim Taylor, colored. Her brain was taken out by Dr. Paris Wheeler, and was sent to Dr. Gibber, of the Pasteur Institute, New York, by Marshal Hefflin, for examination to settle the question whether the animal was really mad or not.

THE mint authorities at Philadelphia have discovered a counterfeit five dollar gold piece designed and executed with such remarkable skill that few of the experts can distinguish the spurious coin from the genuine. It differs from the true coin only in size, being slightly larger in diameter. In order to retire the spurious coin from free circulation the mint officials will purchase the bogus coins at their face value and then destroy them. The counterfeits have an intrinsic value of $4.40.

HORRIBLY MANGLED.

William Mills Run Over and Killed on the Kentucky Central This Morning.

William S. Mills, of this city, was run over by some cars on the Kentucky Central about 11 o'clock this morning and instantly killed.

No one saw him at the time, and it is not known how the accident happened. He is partially deaf, and it is supposed that he was walking along the track when the yard engine or passenger engine backed some cars over him.

His body was mangled in a horrible manner, and his head was crushed and his brains scattered about on the snow.

Deceased was about six years old. His wife and one son, Mr. L. M. Mill, survive him.

MINER'S MAXIMS

It's only by comparison
That real value is determined.

Comparisons are said to be odious, but Miner's Shoes invite comparison, because they neither shrink nor suffer from the trial—they contain real value.

Professor Koch is just now the most talked-about person in Europe, and justly so, for his feat in finding a cure for consumption is worthy of admiration; still, people who buy their Shoes at Miner's will find their own feet comfortable and avoid the consumption of their income.

"Something for nothing." It sounds well in theory, but to obtain value for value suits most people in practice.

Miner's Shoes have stood the test of time, and have never been found wanting.

REVIEW OF TRADE.

R. G. Dun & Company's Weekly Report.

A BIG HOLIDAY BUSINESS.

No Embarrassment of Business as Shown
By the Large Movement of Money
Through the Different Banks, at All Leading Trade Centers.

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—R. G. Dun & Company's weekly review of trade says The holiday trade, which was remarkably heavy here, and at nearly all other points good, which is not evidence that the tightness of the money market springs from any general embarrassment of business or industry. The volume of business through banks continues larger, though but about 3 per cent. larger than a year ago. Foreign trade is very heavy, in spite of causes which were expected to insure a material decrease.

Reports from other cities disclose no important change in the condition of trade. Wholesale business naturally slackens and is quiet at this point of the year, and the indisposition to act is rather increased by the tardiness of collections. At Boston prospects are considered better for trade in woolen and cotton goods, and some large lots of wool have been sold without change in prices. The demand for leather is fair. Conditions at other eastern cities have been not essentially different, though at Pittsburgh Bessemer iron has sold at $16.25, the lowest price for the year, and all pig iron is at bottom prices. Manufactured iron is in fair demand, and rails unchanged.

At points further west, expectation of improvement after Jan. 1, is general. At Kansas City, wholesale trade is quite good, but cattle and hog receipts are light. At Lincoln, Neb., business exceeds that of last year. At Denver the demand for money is lighter, but at Salt Lake the money market is extremely close and the outlook unsatisfactory. At other points in the northwest, the monetary situation seems rather better.

Reports from the south also indicate some improvement. Manufacturers at Louisville are fully employed, though money is very close. Trade at Atlanta improves; at Galveston cotton receipts exceed last year's. New Orleans reports fair trade, larger receipts of cotton, the crop being there estimated at 7,700,000 bales. Throughout the south the fictitious prices maintained last summer and fall for cotton have caused some embarrassment, being followed by the inevitable decline as the magnitude of the crops became known. While the situation of the iron and steel industry shows no improvement, the fact that the closing weeks of the year are passing without any serious setback, gives encouragement. On the whole labor has never been more fully employed than in the latter part of 1890.

The monetary situation grows more more satisfactory, because treasury disbursements continue and arrivals of gold have given aid, and the enormous excess of merchandise exports over imports is felt.

The business failures occurring throughout the country during the last seven days number, for the United States 303, and for Canada 20, or a total of 323, as compared with a total of 404 last week, and 374 the week previous to the last. For the corresponding week of last year the figures were 288, representing 262 failures in the United States and 26 in the Dominion of Canada.

BLOWN INTO FRAGMENTS.

Powder Company's Cartridge House Explodes in New Jersey.

LAKE HOPATONG, N. J., Dec. 27.—The cartridge house of the works of the American Forsite Powder company, near here blew up at 6:30 o'clock, Friday morning. The noise of the explosion was terrific and two workmen, John E. Johnson and Mahlon Sperry, who were in the house at the time were literally blown into fragments.

The noise of the concussion was heard for several miles, and despite the heavy snow storm, great crowds of people have been flocking to the works all the morning.

Funeral of a Naval Officer.

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—The funeral services over the remains of Frederick Pearson, a retired commander of the United States navy who died on Tuesday of heart disease, were held at his late residence yesterday. The casket was covered with black velvet and richly mounted with silver and gold. The floral offerings were numerous and beautiful. The parlors, though large, could hardly accommodate the people who came to pay their last respects to the dead naval officer. The interment was at Woodlawn.

Presidential Appointments.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—President Harrison yesterday appointed Philip C. Garrett, of Philadelphia, to be a member of the board of Indian commissioners, vice Clinton B. Fisk, deceased, and E. Darwin James, of Brooklyn, to be a member of the same board, vice William H. Morgan, resigned. He has also appointed Joseph W. Paddock, of Omaha, to be a government director of the Union Pacific Railroad company, vice James W. Savage, deceased.

A Drunken Fool With a Pistol.

CLARKSBURG, W. Va., Dec. 27.—Moses Howell, a railroad employe, while intoxicated Thursday night, pointed a loaded revolver at Miss Norris, daughter of George Norris, with whom he boarded. It exploded and the ball passed through both wrists, inflicting a serious wound. The spent ball entered George Norris' leg, causing painful injuries. Howell, who claims it was an accident, was arrested and jailed.

Chief Justice Dead.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Dec. 27.—Chief Justice Simpson, 66, died of heart disease here yesterday. He was elected to congress, but was disqualified under the fourteenth amendment. He was lieutenant governor under Wade Hampton. The legislature likely will reassemble to elect his successor.

INDIAN WAR ENDED.

All the Hostiles Will be at Their Agencies Within Three or Four Days.

OMAHA, Dec. 27.—A special from Pine Ridge to The World-Herald says a battalion of the Seventh cavalry with two Hotchkiss guns and a pack train has just left for Wounded Knee about thirty miles away. The Indian council in the Bad Lands has decided in favor of the hostiles returning to the agency.

They are now all on their way in. Perhaps fifteen or twenty may slip away, but the authorities feel that the Indian war has been ended. At least they express great satisfaction at the news brought by the couriers, who arrived about 2 o'clock yesterday. There is still danger of serious trouble in case an attempt is made to disarm the hostiles. Unless this is done, all the Indians will be at their agencies within three or four days.

Verified From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—A dispatch was received at the war department yesterday from Gen. Miles corroborating the published press reports to the effect that last Thursday and other head men in the hostile camp in the Bad Lands, had signified their willingness to come in. This is regarded as very favorable news at the department.

Pension Agent Missing.

GALLIPOLIS, O., Dec. 27.—Samuel P. Vaughn, a prominent citizen, pension agent and politician, residing about five miles from town, has suddenly disappeared under mysterious circumstances. Vaughn was in this city a week ago last Tuesday and on Wednesday morning went to his home, and on the same evening went to Camden, Vinton county, where he took a fast train for the west. For several days it was reported that he was very sick at his father's house in Jackson, and on Christmas eve it was said that he had died, but this proved untrue. Vaughn is connected with the largest estates in the county, and a stockholder in The Journal Printing company.

Assault on an Editor.

ZANESVILLE, O., Dec. 27.—Charles U. Shryock, editor of The Sunday News, was assaulted yesterday afternoon by Joe Casey, a well known tough, and dangerously wounded. Shryock has been exposing the schemes and crooked dealings of J. M. Bain, alias W. H. Griffith & Company, alias the Zanesville Chemical company. Casey, who is in Bain's employ, walked into Shryock's office and began a tirade of abuse and insulting language. Shryock was seated at a desk, and as he turned to arise Casey struck him over the head with a heavy cane, rendering him insensible, and it is feared, fracturing his skull. Casey was arrested and lodged in jail.

Emancipation Celebration.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—Elaborate preparations have been made for the celebration at Alexandria, Va., on New Year's night, of the 18th anniversary of the emancipation proclamation. An oration will be delivered by Congressman Langston. The president and a number of senators and representatives have been invited to attend.

Mysterious Murder of a Little Girl.

RICHFIELD, N. Y., Dec. 27.—This village is highly excited over the mysterious death yesterday of a 9-year-old Italian girl, named Teresa Van Neiser. Her mother sent her down into the cellar to get some wood. She remained longer than her mother thought necessary. A call brought no response, and Mrs. Van Neiser went to the cellar to see what her daughter was doing. She found the little one unconscious on the floor. Doctors were hastily summoned, but the child died in a few hours without regaining consciousness. An examination revealed the fact that she had been assaulted. The matter will be thoroughly investigated.

Fight With Bowls Killed.

FLORENCE, Wis., Dec. 27.—Joseph Heiden and John Neumer, two lumbermen, while coming into town yesterday morning from Hall's lumber camp, fought a bloody battle with bowie knives near Keyes lake, three miles from this place. Neumer is badly cut and will die. Heiden is also badly cut, having been stabbed by Neumer in several places. Heiden is in jail and Neumer is at Malloy's livery where his death is expected every moment. He has ten ugly gashes on his breast. Neumer's home is at Cooperstown.

Accidentally Shot His Son.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Dec. 27.—John Frick and his 7-year-old son, of this place, went gunning yesterday morning, returning at noon. The father undertook to remove the loads remaining in the gun. The weapon was discharged, the ball entering the boy's head, killing him instantly. The father is almost crazed with grief, and watch is kept on him for fear he will harm himself.

FOSTORIA, O., Dec. 27.—Frank Meyers, a farmer and agent for agricultural implements, tells a thrilling story about three robbers relieving him of $14,000 near the scene of the Kuhns-Campau murder.
